

Those were quickly distributed leading to a second printing 30,000 more brochures.

"There's a lot of interest out there," Hillman said. Visitors to the Capital Region counties want to know about Troy as well as Saratoga Springs and Albany, she added.

Carol Hill of Madison, Va., visited Troy on Tuesday. She said the spot along the river is a picturesque area that would be perfect for the visitors center.

"If it had a visitors center," Hill said, "it would be wonderful."
